This diagram describes the IT Architecture from the logical infrastructure perspective. The Primary and Secondary Data Centers are connected by Dark Optical Fiber allowing the two geographically separate sites to operate as one logical LAN. All servers are separated into individual functional Security Zones. All priority servers in this zone run Host Quality Control Environment (DEV, SIT & UAT). All secondary servers in this zone run traditional IPS, all servers are separated into individual functional Security Zones.